Title: Registration Policy

Policy Statement:

Below outlines how a player has a COMPLETED REGISTRATION

- All players registering for soccer within the North Zone and any affiliated clubs who reside in Edmonton are required to purchase a current community league membership in order to play in the North Zone.
- All players must have a completed registration in the EMSA Soccer Portal
- All players must have a profile in the EMSA North Team Snap system
- All players must have fees paid in full – Payment Plan & Funding Plan options must follow the respective Payment Plan & Funding policies in place to be considered “paid”
- All players must have the Volunteer Policy satisfied by submitting the required volunteer deposit and have someone signed up for a volunteer shift (1/per player/season)

In the event any of these items are not done the registration will be considered INCOMPLETE. A player with an INCOMPLETE registration will NOT be placed on a team regardless of if payment is received.

Purpose: To ensure it is clear on what is required to have a completed registration
